Exodus 32: 7-14

IN diébus illis: Locútus est Dóminus ad Móysen, dicens: Descénde de monte: peccávit pópulus tuus, quem eduxisti de terra Ægypti. Recessérunt cito de via, quam ostendísti eis: fecerúntque sibi vítulum conflátilem, et adoravérunt, atque immolántes ei hóstias, dixerunt: Isti sunt dii tui, Israél, qui te e duxérunt de terra Ægypti. Rursúmque ait Dóminus ad Móysen: Cerno, quod pópulus iste duræ cervicis sit: dimítte me, ut irascátur furor meus contra eos, et déleam eos, faciámque te in gentem magnam. Móyses autem orábat Dóminum, Deum suum, dicens: Cur, Dómine, iráscitur furor tuus contra pópulum tuum, quem eduxisti de terra Ægypti in fortitúdine magna et in manu robústa? Ne quæro dicant Ægypti: Cállide edúxit eos, ut interficeret in móntibus et deléret e terra: quiéscat ira tua, et esto

EPISTLE

In those days, the Lord said to Moses, Go down from the mountain to your people, whom you brought out of the land of Egypt, for they have become depraved. They have soon turned aside from the way I pointed out to them, making for themselves a molten calf and worshipping it, sacrificing to it and crying out, 'This is your God, O Israel, Who brought you out of the land of Egypt!' I see how stiff-necked this people is, continued the Lord to Moses. Let Me alone, then, that My wrath may blaze up against them to consume them. Then I will make of you a great nation. But Moses implored the Lord, his God, saying, Why, O Lord, should Your wrath blaze up against Your own people, whom You brought out of the land of Egypt with such great power and with so strong a hand? Why should the Egyptians say, 'With evil intent He brought them out, that He might kill them placábilis super nequítia pópuli tui. Recordáre Abraham, Isaac et Israël, servórum tuórum, quibus iurásti per temetípsum, dicens: Multiplicábo semen vestrum sicut stellas coeli: et univérsam terram hanc, de qua locútus sum, dabo sémini vestro, et possidébitis eam semper. Placátusque est Dóminus, ne fáceret malum, quod locútus fúerat advér-sus pópulum suum.

Psalm 43: 26, 2

EXSÚRGE, Dómine, fer opem nobis: et libera nos propter nomen tuum. V. Deus, áuribus nostris audívimus: et patres nostri annuntiavérunt nobis opus, quod operátus es in diébus eórum et in diébus antíquis.

John 7: 14-31

IN illo témpore: Iam die festo mediánte, ascendit Iesus in templum, et docébat. Et mirabántur Iudaei, dicétes: Quómodo hic líteras scit, cum non didícerit? Respóndit eis Iesus et dixit: Mea doctrína non est mea, sed eius, qui misit me. Si quis volúerit voluntátem eius fácere, cognóscet de doctrína, utrum ex Deo sit, an ego a meípso loquar. Qui a semetípso loquitur, glóriam própriam quærit. Qui autem quærit glóriam eius, qui misit eum, hic verax est, et iniustítia in illo non est. Nonne Móyses dedit vobis legem: et nemo ex vobis facit legem? quid me quaeritis interficere? Respóndit turba, et dixit: Dæmónium habes: quis te quærit interficere? Respóndit Iesus et dixit eis: Unum opus feci, et omnes mirámini. Proptérea Móyses dedit vobis circumcisióem non quia ex Móyse est, sed ex pátribus: et in sábbato circumcidítis hóminem. Si circumcisióem accipit homo in sábbato, ut non solvátur lex Móysi: mihi indignámini, quia totum hóminem sanum feci in sábbato?

in the mountains and exterminate them from the face of the earth? Let Your blazing wrath die down; relent in punishing Your people. Remember Your servants Abraham, Isaac and Israel, and how You swore to them by Your own self, saying, 'I will make your descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky; and all this land that I promised, I will give your descendants as their perpetual heritage.' So the Lord relented in the punishment He had threatened to inflict on His people.

GRADUAL

Arise, O Lord, help us! Redeem us for Your Name's sake. V. O God, our ears have heard, our fathers have declared to us the deeds You did in their days, in days of old.

GOSPEL

At that time, when the feast was already half over, Jesus went up into the temple and began to teach. And the Jews marvelled, saying, How does this man come by learning, since He has not studied? Jesus answered them and said, My teaching is not My own, but His Who sent Me. If anyone desires to do His will, he will know of the teaching whether it is from God, or whether I speak on My own authority. He who speaks on his own authority seeks his own glory. But he who seeks the glory of the one who sent him is truthful, and there is no injustice in him. Did not Moses give you the Law, and none of you observes the Law? Why do you seek to put Me to death? The crowd answered and said, You have a devil. Who seeks to put You to death? Jesus answered and said to them, One work I did and you all wonder. For this reason Moses gave you the circumcision - not that it is from Moses, but from the fathers - and on a Sabbath you circumcise a man. If a man receives circumcision on a Sabbath, that the Law of Moses may not be broken, are you indignant with me because I made a whole man well on a Sabbath? Judge not by Nolíte iudicáre secúndum fáciem, sed iustum iudícium iudicáte. Dicébant ergo quidam ex Ierosólymis: Nonne hic est, quem quærunť interficere? Et ecce, palam loquitur, et nihil ei dicunt. Numquid vere cognovérunt príncipes, quia hic est Christus? Sed hunc scimus, unde sit: Christus autem, cum vénerit, nemo scit, unde sit. Clamábat ergo Iesus in templo docens, et dicens: Et me scitis et, unde sim, scitis, et a meípso non veni, sed est verus, qui misit me, quem vos nescitis. Ego scio eum, quia ab ipso sum, et ipse me misit. Quærébant ergo eum apprehéndere: et nemo misit in illum manus, quia nondum vénerat hora eius. De turba autem multi credidérunt in eum.

Psalm 39: 2, 3, 4

EXSPÉCTANS expectávi Dóminum, et respéxit me: et exaudivit deprecátióem meam: et immísit in os meum cánticum novum, hymnum Deo nostro.

HÆC hóstia, Dómine, quaesumus, emúndet nostra delicta: et, ad sacrificium celebrándum, subditórum tibi cörpera mentésque sanctíficet. Per Dominum.

VERE dignum et justum est, æquum et salutáre, nos tibi semper, et ubíque grátias ágere: Dómine sancte, Pater omnipotens, ætérne Deus: Qui corporáli jejúnio vítia cômprimis, mentem élevas, virtútem largiris, et præmia: per Christum Dóminum nostrum. Per quem majestátem tuam laudant Angeli, adórant Dominatióes, tremunt Potestátes. Cæli, calorúmque Virtútes, ac beáta Séraphim, sócia exsultatióne concélebrant. Cum quibus et nostras voces, ut admítte júbeas, deprecámur, súplici confessióe dicétes:

appearances but give just judgment. Some therefore of the people of Jerusalem were saying, Is not this the man they seek to kill? And behold, He speaks openly and they say nothing to Him. Can it be that the rulers have really come to know that this is the Christ? Yet we know where this man is from; but when the Christ comes, no one will know where He is from. Jesus therefore, while teaching in the temple, cried out and said, You both know Me, and know where I am from. Yet I have not come of Myself, but He is true Who has sent Me, whom you do not know. I know Him because I am from Him, and He sent Me. They wanted therefore to seize Him, but no one laid hands on Him because His hour had not yet come. Many of the people, however, believed in Him.

OFFERTORY

I have waited, waited for the Lord, and He stooped toward me and heard my cry. And He put a new song into my mouth, a hymn to our God.

SECRET

May this offering, O Lord, we beseech You, wipe away our sins, and make holy the minds and bodies of Your servants for celebrating this Sacrifice. Through our Lord.

PREFACE FOR LENT

It is truly meet and just, right and availing unto salvation, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks unto Thee, O holy Lord, Father almighty and everlasting God. Who by the fasting of the body dost curb our vices, elevate our minds and bestow virtue and reward; through Christ our Lord. Through whom the angels praise Thy majesty, the dominions worship it, and the powers stand in awe. The heavens and the heavenly hosts, with the blessed seraphim join together in celebrating their joy. With these we pray Thee join our voices also, while we say with lowly praise:
